GREAT DAYS FOR SUFFRAGE

MISS BABCOCK TELLS OF THE CONVEN-

TION'S OVATION IN GRAND RAPIDS.

SEVEN PULPITS FILLED BY WOMEN ON ONE SUNDAY-HOW THE REV. ANNA SHAW OFFICIATED AT A WEDDING.

Miss Elma M. Babcock, in speaking of the National Suffrage Convention, which has just been held in Grand Rapids, Mich, declared to a Tribune reporter that "the great change which has taken place in public opinion during the last fifty years was most conspicuously illustrated in the honors bestowed upon the delegates attending the conven-

"We may safely say," added Miss Babcock, "that the principle for which this organization stands has risen from ridicule and contempt to honor and admiration, and the early pioneers, who were hissed at and egged, are now showered with all the loving kindness and honor that it is possible to bestow upon a human being. At this convention there was nothing which time, money and labor could obtain that was not done for the comfort and entertainment of the delegates by the citizens of "On Sunday, in seven of the churches, the pulpits were filled by women attending the convention, be-sides services in the St. Cecilia Club house, where the convention was held. Susan B. Anthony occupled the pulpit in the Fountain Street Baptist Church, which was filled to its utmost capacity. In the course of his opening remarks the Rev. J. Herman Randall said

'I feel it one of the greatest honors of my life to occupy the same pulpit with Susan B. Anthony. She has given fifty years of her life to the cause of progression and development of womanhood. She stands second in line of the old prophets, and the spirit which imbued them seems also to have

They not only demonstrated their interest in the convention, through beautiful souvenirs of Grand Rapids prepared especially for the occasion for each delegate, and programmes furnished free, but in a drive about the city and a e of the most important furniture factories for which Grand Rapids is noted.

A WOMAN MANUFACTURER. One of the most interesting buildings was the Bissell carpet-sweeper factory. This was of especial sterest to the women, as Mrs. Bissell is at its head, and not a figurehead, either. She is its president, and has a general oversight of the entire plant. Each delegate was presented with a souvernir toy sweeper, complete in every particular, made of the finest material and appropriately inscribed in honor of the convention. From there they were driven to the furniture establishment of Berkey & Grey, after which they were driven about the city to all points of interest. It was a magnificent sight, this procession, nearly a mile in length, of sight, this procession, nearly a mile in length, of the finest turnouts in the city, with liveried coachmen. After the drive the visitors were taken to the Woman's Literary Club, where a reception was held. This club has a membership of five hundred of the first women in Grand Rapids; they own a fine building and are doing a grand educational work. The St. Cecilia Club house, where all the meetings were held, is owned by the Ladles' Music Club of Grand Rapids; they furnished all the music for the convention, and it was pronunced the finest the convention had ever had. The florists of Grand Rapids contributed their share to the pleasure of the meeting by decorating the stage profusely with fresh-cut flowers each day.

Miss Joanna Marie Holm, of Grand Rapids, and William Spencer Heath, of Elgin, Ill. Among the many beautiful presents received by the happy couple was "The Life and Works of Susan B. Anthony," upon the flyleaf of which was inscribed: "To Joanna Marie Holm and William Spencer Heath, the founders of an equal-rights home, we present this story of the woman whose whole life has stood for equality of rights in the Nation, the home and the Church." "Reminiscences of Elizabeth Cady Stanton" was also presented to them, making two unique wedding presents.

Susan B. Anthony, while in her eightieth year, is as full of life and energy as most women half her age. She was unanimously re-elected president and Anna H. Shaw vice-president.

"No woman was ever mote loved and honored by her followers," said Miss Babcock, "than is 'Aunt Susan,' as they call her. While she may never live to cast her bailet in her own State, she must feel amply repaid for a life of devotion to a principle, in the devotion shown by her followers and their readiness to complete the work she has begun." EMANU-EL SISTERHOOD HOME.

THE NEEDED $50,000 IS NOW FULLY SUBSCRIBED BY FRIENDS.

OTHER RECENT CONTRIBUTIONS TO JEWISH CHARITIES-WORK OF THE SISTERHOOD OR-GANIZED BY THE REV. DR. GOTTHEIL.

The Emanu-El Sisterhood of Personal Service has wants to build. This Sisterhood was organized ten years ago by the Rev. Dr. Gotthell, and was the first ever organized among the Jews. Since then every Jewish congregation in New-York has instituted a Sisterhood of its own, all working along social economic lines. The Emanu-El Sisterhood neidentally belongs to the richest congregation in ocated at Forty-third-st, and Fifth-ave.

The house now occupied by the Sisterhood is at No. 223 East Seventy-ninth-st., and belongs to Louis Stern, of Stern Brothers. He gives the use of the building rent free.

At a special meeting two months ago Dr. Gottheil asked for a new home, and in less than four weeks $40,000 had been subscribed, and at the end of seven weeks the balance required had been contributed. as well as many furnishings. The architects are drawing their plans now, and a committee is seecting the site. It is probable the house will be finished and ready for occupancy by next January.

The response among the Jews to demands made upon them for charity or parochial purposes is generous and ready. Mt. Sinai has recently collected $1,000,000 for a new hospital at One-hun-dredth-st. and Madison-ave. The Young Men's Hebrew Association is having a new $150,000 building erected, which is a gift from Jacob H. Schiff. The United Hebrew Charities has dedicated its new building, which cost a quarter of a million, the gift of S. Loed. The Educational Alilance has an endowment fund of $100,000, and the Working Girls' Vacation Society has collected $25,000 for its sumner home. These collections have all been made within the last four months.

A large colony of Russian Jews has grown up between Sixtleth and One-hundredth sts. on the East Side. The Emanu-El Sisterhood Building is to be provided with a roof-garden, free baths and a gymnasium. It will be thoroughly fitted with modern appliances for teaching cooking, laundry work and the training of unskilled labor.

The officers of the Sisterhood are: Honorary president, the Rev. Dr. G. Gotthell; president, Mrs. William Einstein; first and second vice-presidents, Mrs. Simon Borg and Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff; treasurer. Mrs. M. H. Moses; recording secretary, Miss Carrie Wise, and corresponding secretary, Miss Carrie Wise, and Einstein of the Federation of Sisterhoods, which meets once a month for discussion. They all labor with and are under the United Hebrew Charities, each sisterhood having its own district for work Mrs. Sisterhood having its own district for work Mrs. Einstein has studied for the last three years under Professor Giddings, of Columbia University, and will graduate this year as a sociologist.

Mrs. Rebecca Kohut is an active member, who has had the valuable experience of work among the poor for over fifteen years. There is secarcely a week that Mrs. Kohut does not speak before an audience in behalf of the cause of the Sisterhood.

A new work in which she is greatly interested is the "recreation rooms," at No. 72 Orchard-st. opened by the Council of Jewish Women. TO MY FRIEND.

And yet 'tis thus, my friend, the hours And days go by, with you and me. We, too, are sowing seeds of flowers We never see.

Sometimes we sow in soil of sin: Sometimes where choking thorns abound, And sometimes cast our good seed in Dry, stony ground

Our stalks spring up and fade and die Under the burning noontide heat, And hopes and plans about us lie All incomplete:

And as the tollsome days go by Unrespited with flowery ease, Angels may cry out, "Vanity Of vanities!" Oh, when fruitionless the night Descends upon our day of ills, God grant we find our harvests white On heavenly hills.

SUNSHINE CONTRIBUTIONS. A booklet has come from Eleanor Brodle Chester; a piece of worsted crocheted lace from a T. S. S. member; a package of flower seeds from Kate E. Hawkins; scriptural cards and stamps for mailing from Miss Palmer.

REPORT OF DISTRIBUTIONS.

A large box containing picture-cards, books for children and a collection of pretty pictures was sent from the T S. S. office yesterday to be dis-tributed among the children in the Italian Industrial School, of this city.

Another box, containing books and games, was sent to Junior Branch No. 3 of Brooklyn, for the spreading of sunshine among the young members.

Many gifts were forwarded to invalid members.

In order that people may be happy in their work these three things are needed: They must be fit for it, they must not do too much of it, and they must have a sense of success in it.—(Ruskin.

MONEY RECEIVED. Mrs. Theron E. Parsons has sent a postal order for $1, "Two Friends" $1 in stamps for their May dues to the endowment fund, Miss Palmer 50 cents in stamps for gold-plated pin, and Amy F. Lowe $1 to be used toward some Sunshine child's outing.

Miss Surie Swift, daughter of a well-known law yer of Poughkeepsie, a Vassar graduate, and fo the last twelve years a faithful soldier in the ranks of the Salvation Army, has taken the veil of the Dominican Order of Nuns. She became a novitiate in the Convent of St. Ricci of the Third Order of St. Dominic last week. She will henceforth be known as Sister Imeida Theresa.

SYMPATHY FOR MRS. TRAUTMAN.

Most sincere and heartfelt is the sympathy expressed by all who know her for Mrs. Ralph Trautman on the sudden death of her youngest dataseter. Miss Alice Edna Trautman.

Miss Trautman died of appendicitis on Saturday afternoon after a few days illness.

Mrs Trautman, whose kindly work among the sick, suffering and poor has brought comfort to so many desolate wives and families of soldiers, and who has helped to protect the health of the metropolis, is prostrated with grief. Her friends are alarmed for her health.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, No. 143 West Forty-sixth-st.

SAYS SHE WAS INCORRECTLY REPORTED IN

THE GRAND RAPIDS CONVI

Lexington, Ky., May 8 (Special).-Miss Laura Clay, president of the Kentucky Equal Rights As sociation, gave out a statement to-day in which she said she had been incorrectly reported in the Grand Rapids convention. She was opposed to allowing the resolution introduced by the colored delegate to pass because it was matter foreign to the objects of the association, at best, and she was also opposed to allowing the race question to be injected into the association's work. She had not read Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton's comments on her action, but as Mrs. Stanton was not at the convention she thought her criticisms should have no weight. There has been a coldness on the part of Mrs. Stanton, Miss Clay says, ever since the World's Fair year, when Miss Clay prevented Mrs. Stanton from bringing the Sunday-closing question Stanton from bringing the Sunday-closing question into the deliberations of the convention of that year. Miss Clay denies that she has tried to buily the Northern delegates. She has thought all along that she was saving wrangling by trying to keep out all matters not in accord with the objects of the association. Miss Clay denies that she said it would be a disgrace for Southern women to ride in the same cars with negro women. As a matter of fact, she was opposed to the Kentucky Separate Coach law, and thinks it unjust.

unloaded to-day, and will be sent to Camp Meade, Pennsylvania. The regiment consists of 650 men from the various Southern States, and is commanded by Colonel H. H. Sargent.

The transport Sedgwick arrived yesterday afternoon from Savannah, and went directly to the Erie Basin, where she must undergo extensive repairs before she will be seaworthy. She was just about to start from Savannah to Havana for troops when she broke down, and she was ordered directly to New-York. She came up in ballast. Her quarter-master is Captain P. H. McHarg, U. S. V., and he has recently been transferred from shore duty in

The transport Meade sailed at 3 o'clock from the transport pler at the end of Pacific-st., Brooklyn. She is going to Ponce, Porto Rico, for the 19th Regular Infantry, which is to be brought to this port at once. On the way she is to stop with the mails at San Juan, and will also leave supplies and a part of a detachment of 27 recruits.

There will be no regular boat out to-morrow, as the Meade carried the mail and supplies for Porto Rican ports, and the McClellan, which has been taken off the regular service, and will sail with orage and recruits for Havana and Santiago, will also carry the mails and supplies for those ports. It is expected that the McClellan will sail on Thursday. She will carry about two hundred and twenty recruits, and will be crowded with forage. The Crook, which is now undergoing repairs in the Erie Basin, will sail the latter part of next week. She will carry a large number of recruits and a cargo of forage as well. The Department has decided to send three of the

The Department has decided to send in returning the volunteers to the United States. The boats will be the Meade, the Thomas and one other not yet chosen, but probably the Logan. No definite orders have been issued yet for the salling of the boats for Manila. They will go by way of the Suez Canal, and it is believed by some that regiments of Regulars will go out on the boats.

AVENUE WILL NOT COMPETE COR UNDERGROUND CONTRACT JUST NOW

Until some definite determination is reached asthe the scope and effect of the Ford franchise measure the Third Avenue Railroad Company will not further consider the advisability of competing four the underground tunnel contract. "Our company," Edward Lauterbach said yes terday, "will do nothing until it is ascertained just precisely what is the scope of the franchise No one at present seems to have any distinct idea of what the measure will do or how it will do it. No machinery is provided for the determination and assessment of the franchise tax—apparently that part of the business is to be left to the local assessors. It is, on the whole, such a nebulous, un certain measure that no corporation or body of certain measure that no corporation or body of men would be justified in seeking a public fran-chise until its exact operation had been settled. That settlement can be accomplished only by time and thought, and possibly by adjudication in the courts. Certainly the act has an ominous and sinister aspect enough, appearing calculated to render worthiess properties which energy, enter-prise and skill have made or might make valuable.

President Coogan of the Borough of Manhattan and the combined boards of local improvements for the same borough gave a hearing in Mr. Coogan's office yesterday afternoon on the ordin-ance proposed by the Board of Trade and Transportation for the regulation of the height of buildings in New-York City. The ordinance is now beings in New-York City. The ordinance is now before the Municipal Assembly, which has the power in the matter, and Mr. Coogan's action was only for the purpose of ascertaining public opinion.
The ordinance limits the height of omice buildings to 200 feet, apartment-houses and hotels from 18.
feet to 13: feet, according to the width of the street, and dwellings to 75 feet in streets less than 76 feet, and 50 feet in streets wider than 75 feet.

DENIED AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE. At the office of Collector George R. Bidwell it was denied yesterday that Senator N. W. Aldrich had been the recipient of discriminating favor from the baggage inspectors when he arrived on the Paris from Europe on Saturday. It was reported that although Senator Aldrich brought with him twenty large trunks and boxes they were all chalked and passed within twenty minutes, the intimation being that the examination of the baggage was merely perfunctory.

At the Custom House yesterday a Tribune reporter was informed that no unusual consideration had been extended to the Senator, and that, on the contrary, all the trunks and boxes belonging to him and his family had been thoroughly examined. ······· If YOU WANT "THE ONLY" GENUINE HUNYADI WATER,
